BJA Yesterday Received Director IPI MENA Nejib Friji

Bahrain Journalists Association (BJA) yesterday received at its headquarters in Juffair, Director of the International Peace Institute, Middle East and North Africa (IPI.MENA) Nejib Friji. Discussions focused on boosting co-operation between BJA and the institute through signing an agreement between both sides. Mr Friji congratulated the new board of directors, lauding the association’s democratic elections experience which was characterised by impartiality and transparency. He underlined the role of media and journalism in promoting peace, tolerance and co-existence in the community. BJA Board Chairperson Ahdeya Ahmed Al Sayed lauded the visit of IPI.MENA Director, hailing co-operation between the association and the institute to promote peace. She stressed that Bahrain has always been keen on fostering tolerance, peaceful coexistence, religious freedom, pluralism, respect and human rapprochement.
